Advent Event

In case you were unable to attend, we had a special Advent celebration in December. The Joy Bible study group joined forces with the BBB's and provided a morning of excellent food, fellowship, and laughter. All the ladies brought food to share. Cookies were brought in to divide up to take to our at-home ministries. There were so.... many cookies that we packaged some for good will donations after service the next day. Then the fun began. Ken Jaworski auctioned off gifts that were brought in by everyone that were wrapped and came in every shape and size. Charlie Hilla was the comedy relief, acting as Vanna White and delivering the gifts to the winning bidders. When all was finished and the tally was complete, we raised $1830 for the Haitian Christmas party. Thank you to everyone that participated and all the people that helped in any way.

Welcome Rowen Erickson!

We are excited to welcome Rowen to Bethel. She is now the Music and Choir Director. Please join us in person or online to listen to how blessed we are to have such a talented musician.

Baby Shower

On January 11th Bethel hosted a baby shower for Elta & Laurance, our Haitian friends & students who are expecting a baby boy mid February. We showered them with gifts and everyone had a fun morning. Thank you to everyone who participated.

Words from Bishop Anne Edison-Albright

Bishop Anne shared the following words in a sermon preached at the Installation of Pr. Jason Poole-Xiong at Zion in Appleton on Saturday, January 24th.

“Across the country and close to home, people are in hiding. Some are undocumented, some have had their refugee status taken away, some are US citizens being targeted, harassed and detained because they aren't white. We've heard that this is all necessary because some people are here illegally, and that makes them criminals, and criminals deserve whatever happens to them. That kind of logic has justified acts of great cruelty and violence throughout human history, and it's not compatible with a theology of grace. Last weekend, federal agents killed a man in Minnesota. You may hear debates about whether or not he deserved it. Again, the question of “deserving” is antithetical to a theology of grace. Jesus teaches that people who are undeserving—the prodigal son, the late-day hires in the vineyard—will inherit the kingdom of God.

Like generations of faithful people who came before us, we are called to be the church in difficult times. Being the church means being rooted in Christ: the one who was born, lived, was arrested, was killed, and rose again so that the whole world might have God's peace and grace and abundant life— even in our times of greatest fear, conflict and grief.

This is not an easy time. But it is an important time to be the church.”

— Bishop Anne Edison-Albright
